GODLOVE MIKEL.

Godlove Mikel is stated to have been born in 1758, where is not known. He died October 25, 1830, aged 72 years, 4 months, 21 days, according to his tombstone in Albury Cemetery, Ameliasburgh Township, Prince Edward County. As has been stated, his place of birth is unknown. The name appears to be of German origin, and has been spelled in various ways. Military records show the name as Magel, Mugel and Muzel, as well as Maigal. The family spell it as Mikel. If Godlove was European born, there are likely no others by this name in the western world. If he was born in America, and had relatives there, the name as recorded above must be a corruption. Similar names appearing in the Census of New York for 1790 are Merkle, Michael, Mickell, Mickle, Mickles and Muckle. The census of 1790 for the State of Vermont shows an Ezekiel Mighell as a resident of the Town of Wallingford, Rutland County.

Godlove Mikel enlisted in the 2nd Battalion of the King's Royal Regiment of New York on 27 June, 1783. His name does not appear in the list of his Battalion which occupied Oswego and which rebuilt Fort Frontenac. It is, therefore, assumed that he remained in Quebec, and that he was discharged there on 24 Dec., 1783. He did not settle with his Battalion in Fredericksburgh in June, 1784. He appears to have ascended the St. Lawrence shortly after, and to have settled in Ameliasburgh Township, with a few years residence in Fredericksburgh Township. He married there on Monday, 2 January, 1789, Elizabeth, daughter of John Lott, a Loyalist who came in after the Peace.

Godlove and Elizabeth were residing in Thurlow Township in March, 1790, when their first child was born, removing to Ameliasburgh prior to 1794.

Their children, none of whom drew land as Loyalists, as far as is known, were:

1. Ernest Duncan, born in 1788, died in 1865. He was baptized 7 March, 1790, at Fredericksburgh by Rev. John Langhorn. He married, first, Hannah Chase, and second, Mrs. Mary McWilliams.
2. Catherine, married William Chase, of the Carrying Place.
3. Margaret, born 26 Feb., 1793, and died June 8, 1847. She was baptized by Rev. John Langhorn on 8 July, 1794. She married David Covert, of Ameliasburgh.
4. Elizabeth, married Alfred Brown, of Ameliasburgh.
5. Charles, married Margaret Maria ----. He removed to the United States.
6. Sarah Ann, born 1800, died 1876, married William Dempsey, of Ameliasburgh.
7. Peter, born 1804, died 1868. He married Abigail Chase, and resided in Trenton.
8. Eva, married John Stoneburg, of Ameliasburgh.
9. Daniel, born 1810, died 11 November, 1882. He married Sarah Ann Pierce, and resided in Ameliasburgh.

An entry in the Rev. John Langhorn's Parish Register for St. Paul's Church, Fredericksburgh, belongs to the Maigal family. It is the baptism of John, son of Ernest and Elizabeth Meikel, of Ameliasburgh, on 2 March, 1796. It is possible that Godlove Mikel had a second christian name, Ernest, and that his name was Godlove Ernest. If so, then this John should be included in the above list of his children. It is also possible that Ernest was a brother of Godlove who resided in Ameliasburgh for a short time. One interesting feature is that the mother in all cases is known as Elizabeth, or Elizabel.

GODLOVE MIKEL.

United Empire Loyalist.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Mrs. Cope of Brighton tells me that you have written a book regarding the Loyalists in the Bay of Quinte area. I would like to have you send me a copy and if you will let me know the cost will immediately send you payment for it.

I am descended from Godlove Mikel who I believe settled in Prince Edward county. I know where my grandfather's farm was in the 9th concession of Murray township in Hastings county but would like to find where his grandfather Godlove settled. Can you suggest how I would go about doing this and also how I can find out the place in New York State where they lived prior to coming to Upper Canada.

I would also like to join the U.S.L. Association but do not know whom to contact. If you can tell me I would be very happy. Please accept my thanks in advance for these favours.

Yours truly,

D. E. Mikel, M. D.
